STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

Look Here, Young Man

You have to wear clothes and when you buy, you look for the best value for your money. Low-priced clothing is seldom cheap. Good cloth, well made, at reasonable prices, is the cheapest to buy. This you get in our VIKING GUARANTEED SUITS for Young Men from $8 to $30. But if you want the very superlative in young men's clothes, hand-tailored throughout, magnificent fabrics and high art patterns, nothing short of GRADUATE clothes should satisfy you. They are distinctively young men's clothes and not-withstanding their pre-eminent quality, are priced with special appeal to young men who cannot indulge in extravagance.

Hand broken stone and gravel must be on margin of road or section by Sep. 15, 1912. All gravel must be spread before Oct. 15, 1912. All metal is to be measured by the magistrate who may designate when and where it is to be spread. All crushed stone must be spread not later than January 1, 1913.

All stone furnished must be good, sound, hard limestone or quartz and broken into pieces not to exceed two inches in diameter. The gravel must be clean and flinty and that furnished on McKinney and Coffey's Mill must be from Green River.

The Court or its representative may reject any material not of proper size or quality. Bidders must say whether stone will be broken by hand or crushed.

The Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Blank forms on which bids may be made can be obtained from the county clerk. Copies of bonds may be obtained at the County Clerk's office.

Lincoln county owns a rock crusher and contractors will be permitted to use it at $1 per rod.

Poke Hazley says he bets the fellow that writes all these patent medicine testimonials is a smart man.

The Hog Ford preacher next Sunday in his sermon will preach on the Rise and Fall of Gander Creek.

Slim Pickens is fortifying himself against the early spring rains by purchasing a storm proof celluloid collar.

The mail Carrier has warned all of his patrons along the route that hereafter postal cards must be written in plain handwriting.

The ladies of the Dog Hill church will give a supper one night next week to raise money with which to buy a dipper for the cistern.

The Wild Onion School teacher has hung Bryan's picture in the school room, and the scholars say they are going to vote for him when they get grown.

he was in a good humor by the time week the Mail Carrier put blinds on his bridge, to prevent his mule from looking back, he having Miss Hostetter Hooks in the buggy with him.

Poke Easley and Fletcher Henstep got in a fight Tuesday morning Poke rushed away after a false rail, but he was so long in finding one that he was in a good humor by the time he got back.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band has been improved both in appearance and ability to make music by the addition of Cricket Hicks to the organization. Cricket will play the French harp and pats his foot.

Frisby Hancock is remodeling his hog pen so that it will in every way conform to the pure food law. Instead of building it flat on the ground he waited and began it about two feet up in the air, giving the bottom ample ventilation.

Jefferson Potlocks has been invited to attend a birthday celebration over on the far side of Musket Ridge next week. The feature of the event will be a big dinner and for this occasion Jefferson has twisted his whiskers back out of the way.

The Blind Man from the Calf Rib neighborhood played one of his long-winded dusty pieces on the fiddle at the Dog Hill church last Sunday. The preacher was aiming to deliver a sermon, but the Blind Man did not get through in time.

A play was given at the Tickville opera house the other night. In the second and fifth acts three people were killed by the villain. The coroner at Tickville attended the show, and lost fifteen dollars by all of the dead ones coming to life, again in the last act.

A debate was held at Bonnding Billows Saturday night, and was enjoyed by many from this section. The subject was: Resolved, Will Roosevelt Be Elected? The affirmative won unanimously. However, this decision will not interfere with the regular election.

As soon as Raz Barlow can make the necessary financial arrangement he will go on a trip to Tickville to redeem a letter that is being held there by the government pending the payment of one-cent additional postage. Raz considers the government as being mighty little.

Columbus Allsop and Fit Smith engaged in what looked like a serious difficulty in front of the blacksmith shop Monday morning. It was a quiet affair only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The trouble came up over a remark by Fit Smith to the effect that Columbus was growing old.

Sidney Hicks had a narrow escape from jail at Thunderation a few nights ago. Wanting a drink of water during the night he quietly left the jail unbeknownst to the jailer, and made his way down to the pond, and when he returned he found the jail door had blown to and fastened. He found it impossible to get in without the use of a violence, so he went to the blacksmith shop, and after procuring a hammer and chisel he soon had the door open. He entered without the jailer ever being the wiser.
